

PEDIATRIC RADIOLOGY: RESIDENT ROTATION FEEDBACK SUMMARY

Name:

Resident year:

Rotation block:

MGUH

CNMC

1. FUND OF KNOWLEDGE

Knowledge of basic sciences, anatomy, and physics, and application thereof pertaining to diagnostic imaging. Ability to appropriately protocol, supervise, and interpret imaging studies. Understanding of contrast media agents and their appropriate use, including indications and specific agent selection.

Knowledge of normal development, understanding normal variants, and recognizing pathology. Ability to generate appropriate differential diagnoses.

___ Above Expectations

___ Meets Expectations

___ Below Expectations

2. REPORT QUALITY

Quality of radiology reports. Ability to generate relevant findings and create a meaningful impression. Readability of reports - clarity of construction (i.e. ease of understanding for the reader), logical report organization, and use of succinct/concise prose, when appropriate.

___ Above Expectations

___ Meets Expectations

___ Below Expectations

3. PROFESSIONALISM

Exhibits professional behaviors including respect for others, respect for patient privacy, tolerance of cultural diversity and other groups. Responds openly to constructive feedback. Recognizes personal limitations and seeks help when needed. Commitment to fulfill work-related responsibilities. Preparation and timely attendance for clinical duties and for conferences. Promotes patient safety and serving as a child advocate, and serving as a role model.

___ Above Expectations

___ Meets Expectations

___ Below Expectations

4. COMMUNICATION & INTERPERSONAL SKILLS

Ability to effectively communicate with patients and health care team members. Communicates urgent results clearly in a timely fashion with providers and documents method of communication appropriately. Ability to serve as a consultant in health care teams. Ability to develop rapport with patients and parents. Functions as a team player. Serves as a mentor and effectively teaches others, when appropriate (i.e. junior residents or medical students).

___ Above Expectations

___ Meets Expectations

___ Below Expectations

5. PROCEDURAL SKILLS

Ability to perform or direct sonologic examinations in children, including difficult patients to examine. Able to perform fluoroscopic procedures with skill and appropriately discuss the procedures with patients and parents. Observes and abides by the principles of Image Gently and uses the lowest radiation dose necessary during fluoroscopy.

___ Above Expectations

___ Meets Expectations

___ Below Expectations

SUMMARY

Above expectations: Outstanding resident who meets and exceeds expectations. Would STRONGLY love to recruit this individual as a fellow.

Meets expectations: Resident is meeting expectations and possesses the qualities to become a competent practitioner.

Below expectations: Resident has deficiencies in some or several standards above. Borderline/conditional performance or needs remediation.

___ Above Expectations

___ Meets Expectations

___ Below Expectations

Open Feedback (Required):